Funny you should ask. I have been working on a mapping project, which would show where every registered 2+2 is located (by zip - no actual addresses). Hopefully we'll get that activated in the near future.

As for me, I live in northern Delaware state.

That's a pretty cool idea!

Nice car btw! I was able to check it out in Iowa this past summer.

Thanks. Iowa was great.
I was pleased that the car finally achieved its Champion Award.

Okay, we are all over the place on the map, so let's also talk about what we have in common - 2+2's.
In addition to where, let's tell each other what we have.

Mine is a '65 coupe

8lug is a '66 coupe

2+2=428 has a '67 coupe

As a side note, 2+2=428 was the second owner to register their 2+2, on the first day it went active in 2010 (actually first if you don't count me)

8lug followed 4 months later with car #56.

I knew I was one of the early ones but didn't realize that early LOL

My car is still in pieces. My wife and I are trying to close on a new house. After we get settled I am really looking forward to getting back to work on it. Since I've been unable to find better fenders for my car repairing what I have will more than likely be my winter project.
