

Bumper Boyz - stay away

Posted by OldInjun - 2010/11/08 11:46

I won't go into all the gory details, but Bumper Boyz is the biggest group of idiots in the old car hobby industry. One of the owners - Bob - lied to me repeatedly. They never follow through on promises, and refuse to take responsibility for their (repeated) screw-ups. There are plenty of other plating companies out there that do a better job for the same money, so avoid them and save yourself the hassle.
