!965 convertible 4-speed on the market soon - claimed to be HO car, but not verified yet.

I'd be all over it if I had the money/garage space.

Looks as if this car has a re-stamped motor, so if anyone bids they should assume NOM when they place a value on it.

Value??? Very nice driver but... On PY board saw a lot of different opinions of value but have trouble seeing how it is much over $20k in current condition. Its not any better than #3 condition...not HO. If you put another $20k and a lot of work into it maybe its worth $35k but long way to go to get there.

Let me know if I'm missing a piece of the puzzle??
