

I think I'm in trouble!

Here I thought I had survived one of the longest years in my life with my divorce. I feared I was going to lose my a$$ on everything. However, that did not happen! :D

Now though, as I sit here with my kids looking at 2+2's, my youngest boy (3) picks out a 1966. My daughter (7) does as well. And then my oldest son (10) says he wants a MUSTANG!!!

Like I said...I think I'm in trouble! LOL!!!!

Don't worry. A 10-year old has plenty of time to come to his senses and develop better taste in cars.
