

"Darksiders" Plaques

Posted by OldInjun - 2011/10/03 15:47

---

Many of you may be aware of the name "Darksiders" given to owners of "Big Pontiacs". The nickname started as a reaction to the popularity of GTO's, Firebirds & Trans Ams among most Pontiac'ers - if one fell prey to the charms of a Big Pontiac, they had gone to the "Darkside". The term has gained popularity along with the increased interest in these iconic cars, to the point that T-shirts & hats were designed & sold with a great logo by Performance Years forum member Bill Weedon. Now Bill & Matt Planning have taken it to the next level and commissioned a short run of cast aluminum plaques (like the old time car club license plate hangers from the 50's -60's) emblazoned with the "Darksiders" name & logo.

If you're interested, check out the following thread:

Click here for link

=====