

another lonely car show season

Posted by john - 2013/10/31 01:33

well, another season gone by not seeing another 2 + 2 let alone another convertible 2 + 2.
(not even oldinjun only 1 state away)
Does anyone else out there have a 1965 cameo ivory 2 + 2 conv. w. red interior?

=====

Re:another lonely car show season

Posted by 421 HO 2 - 2013/10/31 02:33

OUR WEATHER DOWN HERE IS JUST STARTING TO SHINE.... SO OUR BEST SEASON FOR CRUIZIN IS JUST BEGINNING....HOPE TO SEE LOTS OUT & ABOUT....BUT UNFORTUNATELY IM
SURE I WONT SEE A 2+2.

=====

Re:another lonely car show season

Posted by 421 HO 2 - 2013/10/31 02:41

& DOES ANYONE OWN A '65 HT IN REEF TURQUOISE WITH A PARCHMENT INTERIOR

=====

Re:another lonely car show season

Posted by john - 2013/10/31 20:45

I saw one about 15 yrs ago at the Burdette Pontiac show in Maryland, great color combo!

=====

Re:another lonely car show season

Posted by OldInjun - 2013/11/01 17:03

John -

Sorry, been a busy year. I think I drove the 2+2 at least 3000 miles. That's part of the 20,000 I've driven it in the last 4 years. Next season we need to get together somewhere in the middle. You ever been to the Big M (I think that's what it's called)? I hear that's pretty good. Or you could take your 2+2 to Cecil County in June for the Mid-Atlantic show & drags.

I miss the times I spent at Ameche's on Loch Raven Blvd. back in the '60's, in my '58 Bonneville convertible. Those were the days.

Jack

=====